

I cast my mind to Calvary

where Jesus bled and died for me.
I see his wounds, his hands, his feet;
my Saviour on that cursed tree.

His body bound and drenched in tears,
they laid him down in Joseph's tomb.
The entrance sealed by heavy stone:
Messiah still and all alone.

O praise the name of the Lord our God;
O, praise his Name forevermore.
For endless days we will sing your praise,
oh Lord, oh Lord our God.

Then on the third, at break of dawn,
the Son of heaven rose again.
O trampled death, where is your sting?
The angels roar for Christ the King.

He shall return in robes of white,
the blazing sun shall pierce the night.
And I will rise among the saints,
my gaze transfixed on Jesus' face.

Keysafe in Porch

Many people have access to the Church keys in the Keysafe in the Porch. Unfortunately they have gone missing along with the padlock for the garden store. Please do have a hunt around in pockets/cars to see if you have them by accident.

Update – The code for the new padlock on the garden shed is the same code as for the keysafe under the arches!

“Thy Kingdom Come” Prayer with the Archbishops

The videos shown before the 10am service are to encourage us to be inspired and involved in this years prayer initiative. Check out the info table at the back of church for more information.

The end of the chapter, the start of a new...

Tesco are withdrawing their email addresses, which means Rev Phil Hughes needs a new email address. The good news is that he has managed to keep the ‘good’ part, so...as of 01 June 2018 Phil's new email address will be phil2overflowing@gmail.com
(Please do not use the old email address after May 2018.)

Thank you:

- To our Flower Team!
